

Contents

PREFACE

vii

Part I

PROFESSIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND REFLECTION-IN-ACTION

- | | | |
|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 1 | The Crisis of Confidence in Professional Knowledge | 3 |
| 2 | From Technical Rationality to Reflection-in-Action | 21 |

Part II

PROFESSIONAL CONTEXTS FOR REFLECTION-IN-ACTION

- | | | |
|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 3 | Design as a Reflective Conversation with the Situation | 76 |
|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

v

CONTENTS

4	Psychotherapy: The Patient as a Universe of One	105
5	The Structure of Reflection-in-Action	128
6	Reflective Practice in the Science-Based Professions	168
7	Town Planning: Limits to Reflection-in-Action	204
8	The Art of Managing: Reflection-in-Action Within an Organizational Learning System	236
9	Patterns and Limits of Reflection-in-Action Across the Professions	267

Part III

CONCLUSION

10	Implications for the Professions and Their Place in Society	287
----	-------------------------------------------------------------	-----

NOTES	355
INDEX	365