THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF PHYSIOLOGISTS.

The Third International Congress of Physiologists will be held in September, 1895, from the 10th to the 14th of the month, at Bern, Switzerland. Professor Kronecker, Director of the Physiological Institute of the University of Bern, has kindly expressed his readiness to afford to Members of the Congress all facilities for demonstration and experiment, as well as for the exhibition of scientific apparatus. It is particularly desirable that those intending to avail themselves of Professor Kronecker's assistance should let him know what their requirements are not later than June 30th.

In connection with the Congress, an Exhibition of Physiological Apparatus will be held. Exhibits may be contributed by all Members of the Congress, by the Directors of Physiological Laboratories, and by makers recommended by any Member of the Congress, or by the Director of a Physiological Laboratory. The exhibition of apparatus will open two days before the Congress, and will close two days after the Congress.

Those intending to be present and to make communications are requested to notify Professor Kronecker, of Bern, or the Secretary for the English Language, before August 1st, giving, if possible, the title of their communications.

Each member of the Congress is required to contribute the sum of ten francs toward defraying the expenses of the Meetings; he will obtain in receipt from the President, Professor Kronecker, a card of membership of the Congress.

C. S. SHERRINGTON,

General Secretary for the English Language.
